FAMILY FUN NIGHTS SEPTEMBER & NOVEMBER!

FREE for the community! Come and check out the Y and see why it's the place to bring your family for great family time.

The THIRD Friday night from 5:00-7:00 p.m. Join us each for a different activity.

Head of household I.D. required and the family group needs to stay together. This is not a drop off Parents Night Off. If you join the Y that night, the joiner fee is 20% off, so ask for a tour if you are interested!

The FALL dates are Sept 17 and Nov 19. September will be a movie night showing The Princess Bride with snacks available for purchase.

Red Cross Lifeguard certification training will be available September 10, 11, and 12. The class includes First Aid, CPR, and AED training. The cost will be $200 for Y members and $225 for non-members. A prerequisite swim is required. The Y will be hiring for winter positions and training may be provided for the $40 certification fee only if hired prior to the start of the class. More class information available on the website.

Afterschool Care & Vacation Club

Back to school we go, and the Y is back to our afterschool program for students at Northeast, Liberty, Edison, Garfield, and Mark Denman schools. Snack and homework assistance is available. Recreational activities such as swimming, gym time, outdoor play, as well as arts & crafts will be provided. Hours are afterschool until 5:30pm. We also offer full day care for days school is out of session, unless the Y is closed (Labor Day, Thanksgiving, etc.). Vacation Club provides care from 7:30am-5:30pm. Please call 217-442-0563 for more information or register at the front desk.
